Information circular*

To: Members of the staff

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: 2009 competitive examination for recruitment to the Professional category of staff members from other categories

1. The purpose of the present circular is to provide information to staff members in the General Service and related categories of the Secretariat who wish to take the 2009 competitive examination for recruitment to the Professional category, in accordance with the provisions of administrative instruction ST/AI/2003/7 of 30 October 2003 and ST/AI/2005/9 of 26 July 2005.

2. The 2009 competitive examination for recruitment to the Professional category is scheduled to be held on 24 February 2009 (written component) and in June/July 2009 (oral component). For candidates convoked in two occupational groups, the two specialized papers are administered on the same day.

Selection of posts

3. The Office of Human Resources Management, taking into account information provided by departments and offices at all duty stations, has established projections of junior Professional level (P-1/P-2) posts subject to geographical distribution that will be or are expected to become available in the 12 months preceding placement. The total number of posts to be selected for the 2009 competitive examination for recruitment to the Professional category will be up to 10 per cent of the number of staff, other than language staff, that were recruited during the previous calendar year at the junior Professional level (P-1/P-2) after passing a competitive examination. The list of successful candidates unplaced under the 10 per cent quota mentioned above will also be circulated to departments for possible additional placement on extrabudgetary positions or in duty stations with high vacancy rates, in accordance with administrative instruction ST/AI/2005/9.

4. On the basis of these projections of organizational needs, the Central Examinations Board has selected the following occupational groups for which the examination is to be held:

* Expiration date of the present information circular: 31 December 2009.

08-51861 (E) 290908

(a) Administration, which covers work such as that of administrative officers, budget officers, personnel officers and project management officers;

(b) Finance, which covers work such as that of accountants and auditors;

(c) Information technology, which covers work such as that of computer specialists, Internet website masters and information technology analysts;

(d) Public information, which covers work such as that of information officers and press officers;

(e) Security, which covers work such as that of security officers;

(f) Social affairs, which covers work such as that of social welfare officers and humanitarian affairs officers;

(g) Statistics, which covers work such as that of statisticians and related work in areas such as economics, the environment, social statistics, demography and trade.

Eligibility

5. A staff member serving in the General Service and related categories, including the Field Service category up to and including the FS-5 level, may apply to take a competitive examination in a particular occupational group, provided that he or she:

(a) Will have had a minimum of five years of continuous service in the Secretariat by 31 December 2008, excluding any service in separately administered funds or programmes, except as otherwise provided in paragraph 6 below;

(b) Has at least a "fully successful performance" rating in his or her last performance report;

(c) Holds a United Nations letter of appointment valid at least until 31 August 2009;

(d) Meets the minimum eligibility criteria set out in paragraphs 7 to 9 of the present information circular.

6. Short breaks in service of not more than six months may be allowed at the discretion of the Central Examinations Board. Staff members who had previously served continuously for at least five years with the United Nations Secretariat, had resigned and by 31 December 2008 would have served continuously for at least three years since their reappointment will also be considered eligible, provided that they meet the other requirements.

Eligibility criteria

7. Staff members are invited to apply for one of the occupational groups in which the examination is to be held in 2009. The minimum eligibility criterion is a three-year first-level university degree, broadly related to the occupational group for which the candidate has applied. Detailed requirements are as follows:

(a) Administration: first-level university degree in public or business administration, commerce, marketing, human resources management or another relevant discipline;

(b) Finance: first-level university degree in accounting, actuarial sciences, auditing, business administration (with evidence of having studied modules in auditing, accounting or finance), finance, management (with courses in accounting, auditing or finance) and international business. Any of the following experiences would be an advantage: two to three years of working experience in a business or governmental environment in an accounting, budgeting or financial capacity; two to three years of working experience in a management auditing/consulting firm; or two to three years of working experience in an engineering or project management capacity evaluating cost/benefit elements or capital project management;

(c) Information technology: first-level university degree in computer science (engineering, programming, software development or theory), information technology, information management, informatics, telecommunications and artificial intelligence. For candidates who have no first-level university degree in any of the above-mentioned fields but have at least two years of professional experience in those fields, the degree may be substituted by one of the following first-level university degrees: electrical engineering, electronics, mathematics, physics, robotics or statistics;

(d) Public information: first-level university degree in communications, journalism, media studies, new media and web design, press and public relations. Furthermore, candidates with a first-level university degree in a field relevant to the work of the Organization (i.e., political science, international relations, modern history, social science, economics or legal affairs) may be considered, provided that they have relevant working experience in public information as a journalist, television, video or radio producer, website designer, public relations officer or specialist in new media;

(e) Security: first-level university degree in criminology, criminal justice, security management or related field. Military or police academy training equivalent to a first-level university degree will also be considered. At least two years of progressively responsible experience related to military, police or security occupations are also required. Experience in security analysis and assessments and forensic computer evaluations is an asset;

(f) Social affairs: first-level university degree in sociology, social science, rural development, women's issues, human geography, anthropology, development studies, environmental studies, labour issues, public policy or other relevant disciplines;

(g) Statistics: first-level university degree in statistics, mathematics, economics with a specialization in econometrics, social sciences with a specialization in sociometrics or demography. One to two years of working experience with a national statistical office or one to two years of working experience in the area of environmental, social or economic statistics would be an advantage.

Staff members who have a degree or degrees broadly related to two occupational groups offered in 2009 may apply to take the examination in each of the two groups.

8. Staff members who had served in the Secretariat for at least five years by 31 December 1989 will be allowed to take the examination in any one of the occupational groups for which the examination is held in 2009 upon providing evidence of post-secondary academic qualifications. Should such staff members hold a first-level university degree or degrees broadly related to the occupational groups offered in 2009, they may apply to take the examination in a second occupational group to which their degree is broadly related (see para. 7).

9. Staff members should provide relevant documents, as required, as evidence in support of their meeting the minimum eligibility criteria described in this section and the eligibility requirements listed in paragraph 5.

Applications

10. Staff members who wish to submit an application should complete the application form contained in the annex to the present information circular and submit it with all the required documentation to the Central Examinations Board by 14 November 2008. The staff member's most recent performance report must also be submitted with the application.

Format and substance of the examination

11. The examination consists of a written examination and an oral examination related to the occupational group concerned.

Written examination

12. The written examination, which accounts for 80 per cent of the total marks, consists of the following two sections:

(a) A general paper that tests drafting skills (45 minutes);

(b) A specialized paper (3 hours and 45 minutes) that tests the candidate's substantive knowledge of the particular occupation.

Oral examination

13. Candidates may be convoked for an oral examination in accordance with administrative instructions ST/AI/2003/7 and ST/AI/2005/9. Candidates serving at duty stations away from Headquarters will take this part of the examination either in New York or at another location, depending on circumstances. At locations away from Headquarters, the oral examination will be conducted by a board consisting of at least three members of the relevant board of examiners, including an ex officio member.

14. The oral examination, which accounts for 20 per cent of the total marks, will consist of a competency-based interview designed to test the candidate's general knowledge of international affairs and of the United Nations core values and competencies that are necessary for positions in the respective occupational groups.
